Broken Election Promises

It is now clear that the Fine Gael and Labour government are intent on carrying on with the same failed anti-social policies as Fianna Fail and the Green Party before them. Every passing week sees another election promise broken or abandoned by Kenny, Gilmore and their cronies. All their talk of 'burning' the bondholders and protecting the most vulnerable in society was just that - talk; empty words to win votes.

Budget 2012 – More Cutbacks & More Injustice

Instead of protecting the most vulnerable, Budget 2012 will do the very opposite. It will inflict further hardship on ordinary families, the very same people who have already borne the brunt of the recession. Hundreds of thousands must lose their jobs or emigrate to fund the bailout of the private banks. Public education, healthcare and housing are all to be slashed to protect the interests of the rich and powerful.

Join the Fight Back!

Budget 2012 is just the latest instalment in the war on working people – a war that is being waged by the Dublin government, but directed by the EU and IMF. And things will, unfortunately, only get worse until people get organised and fight back. The people of Greece have shown that resistance works. They have succeeded through street protests and strikes in getting half their debts written off, while at the same time Kenny has grovelled at the feet of Merkel and Sarkozy. Everybody has a part to play in the fight back against the EU/IMF agenda of cutbacks and tax hikes.

Join the fight back. Join éirígí.

Cáinainnéis 2012 – Bí leis an aistroid

Tá sé soiléir anois go bhfuil sé de rún ag rialtas Fhine Gael agus an Lucht Oibre leanúint leis na polasaithe frith-shóisialta teipthe céanna le Fianna Fáil agus an Comhaontas Glas rompu. Seachas na daoine is soghonta a chosaint, déanfaidh Cáinainnéis 2012 a mhalairt. Gearrfaidh sé tuilleadh cruatain ar ghnáththeaghlaigh, na daoine céanna atá ag iompar ualach an chúluite. Níl i gCáinainnéis 2012 ach an chuid is déanaí den chogadh ar an lucht oibre – cogadh a bhfuil á chur ag rialtas Átha Cliath, ach faoi stiúr an AE agus CAI. Rachaidh cúrsaí in olcas, ar an drochuair, go dtí go bhfuil daoine eagraithe agus troideann siad ar ais. Daoine cosúil leatsa. Bí leis an aistroid, bí le éirígí.
