

No 'British Queen' in the City of '16

The Garden of Remembrance on Parnell Square is dedicated to those who have died fighting British rule in Ireland. On May 17th the 'British Queen' is scheduled to visit the garden, despite the fact that her government and 5000 of her soldiers continue to illegally occupy six Irish counties.

If this visit goes ahead it will be a black day in the history of our great republican city. Dublin is the city of Robert Emmet, Pádraig Pearse and so many other republican heroes. They died that you might be free.

At 3pm on Sunday May 15th éirígí will establish an 'Irish Freedom Camp' at the Garden of Remembrance, which will stay in place until the arrival of the 'British Queen' on May 17th. If enough people join the camp the visit of the 'British Queen' to the gardens will be cancelled. Don't expect someone else to do it. Now is the time for you to stand up and be counted. Tá an Gairdín Cuimhneacháin tíolactha dóibh siúd a fuair bás chun go mbeifeá saor. Bí le Campa Saoirse na hÉireann agus cosain a gcuimhne agus an chúis a bhfuair siad bás ar a son. Ná bí ag súil go ndéanfaidh duine eile é.

Anois an uair le seasamh agus bheith san áireamh.

We Want Freedom, Not Royal Visits!

On May 18th the Dublin government are to host a lavish banquet in Dublin Castle in honour of the 'British Queen'. Hundreds of the wealthiest and most powerful people in Ireland will gorge themselves on the best of food and wine while all around them the people of Ireland struggle to survive. The banquet will be one of the most wasteful aspects of the visit of the 'British Queen', a visit which may cost up to €20,000,000. And you are paying for all of it!

Many of the politicians, businesspeople and journalists that will attend this sickening banquet are the very same people that have surrendered one part of our country to Britain and the rest to the banks, the IMF and the EU. So while the rest of us lose our jobs, our homes and hope itself, it is still party time for Ireland's ruling class.

It's time for people to get on the streets. It's time to give our so called leaders a message that they can't ignore and won't forget. Why should we pay for their bank bailouts and their royal banquets? Join the March on Dublin Castle and add your voice to the demand for freedom from Britain and freedom from the banks, the IMF and the EU. To find out more log onto www.eirigi.org

Tar leis an mhórshiúl ar Chaisleán Átha Cliath. Is mithid rá lenár 'gceannair' go bhfuil an chóisir thart. Is mithid saoirse a éileamh ón Bhreatain, agus ó na bainc, an IMF agus EU. Maoinigh pobail, ní cuairteanna rioga.
